The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of Black Cat Syndicate Limited (“the Company”), including establishing and monitoring key performance goals. In addition, the Board is committed to attaining standards of corporate governance that are commensurate with the Company’s needs. In this regard, the Board has created a framework for managing the Company, including internal controls and a business risk management process. This framework is reflected, in part, in the policies and charters described below.

The Board has adopted and endorses The ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition) as amended from time to time (“ASX Recommendations”) and has adopted the ASX Recommendations that are considered appropriate for the Company given its size and the scope of its proposed activities. Details of the Company’s compliance with the ASX Recommendations are set out below.

In light of the Company’s current stage of development, the Board considers that its current composition is appropriate. As the Company’s activities change in nature and scope, the size of the Board and the implementation of additional corporate governance policies and structures will be reviewed and may change.

The 2019 Corporate Governance Statement was adopted by the Board on 22 October 2019.

The Company’s corporate governance policies and practices as at the date of this Report are outlined below and are available on the Company’s website (www.blackcatsyndicate.com.au).

1. BOARD CHARTER

The Board guides and monitors the business and management of the Company. Under its Charter, the Board is responsible for, amongst other things:

1. Driving the strategic direction of the Company, the allocation of resources to meet objectives and monitoring management performance;
2. Appointing and, if necessary, replacing of the Managing Director and other senior executives;
3. Approving the Company’s remuneration framework;
4. Monitoring the timeliness and effectiveness of reporting to Shareholders;
5. Reviewing and ratifying systems of audit, risk management and internal compliance and control, codes of conduct and legal compliance;
6. Approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management and significant acquisitions and divestitures;
7. Approving and monitoring the budget and adequacy and integrity of financial and other reporting;
8. Approving the annual, half yearly and quarterly reports;
9. Approving significant changes to the organisational structure;
10. Approving decisions affecting the Company’s capital, including determining dividend policy;
11. Recommending to Shareholders the appointment of the external auditor;
12. Ensuring a high standard of corporate governance practice and regulatory compliance; and
13. Procuring appropriate professional development opportunities for Directors.

The Company is committed to the circulation of relevant materials to Directors in a timely manner to facilitate Directors’ participation in Board discussions on a fully informed basis.

2. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

Election of Board members is substantially the province of the Shareholders in general meeting.

The current Board of Directors is as follows:

- Mr Paul Chapman Non-Executive Chairman;
- Mr Gareth Solly Managing Director;
- Mr Alex Hewlett Independent Non-Executive Director; and
- Mr Les Davis Independent Non-Executive Director.

For the purposes of corporate governance reporting the Company's Managing Director, Mr Gareth Solly has been identified as the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO").

Details of the skills and experience of Directors' of the Company are included in the Directors' Report section of the 2019 Annual Financial Statements which are available on the Company's website at www.blackcatsyndicate.com.au.

3. AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Board has adopted an Audit and Risk Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its purpose, its responsibilities and requirements of its meetings. In summary, the audit and risk committee is responsible for ensuring the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the effectiveness of financial reporting and liaison with the Company's auditor, and overseeing of the implementation and management of the Company's risk management framework and systems.

Until the size and/or activities of the Company warrant the creation of separate audit and risk committees, the duties of the audit and risk committees will be undertaken by the full Board.

4. REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Board has adopted a Remuneration Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its role, its responsibilities, its authority, and requirements of its meetings.

In summary, the remuneration committee is responsible for preparing and reviewing the Company's strategy with regard to remunerating, recruiting, incentivising, retaining and, where appropriate, terminating the Company's executives, Non-Executive Directors and employees.

Until the size and/or activities of the Company warrant the creation of a separate remuneration committee, the duties of a remuneration committee will be undertaken by the full Board.

5. NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Board has adopted a Nomination Committee Charter which outlines the composition of the committee, its role, its responsibilities, its authority, and requirements of its meetings.

The nomination committee is responsible for the identification and recommendation of potential candidates for appointment to the Board after considering current board composition and skill sets and experience deemed appropriate. In addition, the nomination committee will oversee matters of performance appraisal, induction procedures and ongoing education and improvement.

The nomination committee will also undertake performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees, individual Directors and senior executives pursuant to the Company's Performance Evaluation Policy.

Until the size and/or activities of the Company warrant the creation of a separate nomination committee, the duties of a nomination committee will be undertaken by the full Board.

6. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DIRECTORS, SENIOR EXECUTIVES AND EMPLOYEES

The Board has adopted a Code of Conduct for Directors, senior executives and employees to promote ethical and responsible decision making and execution of their roles and responsibilities.

7. CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE POLICY

The Company is, subject to the exceptions contained in the Listing Rules, required to disclose to the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”) any information concerning the Company which is not generally available and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material impact on the price or value of Shares.

The Company is committed to observing its disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules. The Company encourages a culture of openness which is conducive to fulfilment of the Company’s disclosure obligations and creates clear lines of communication and authority with regard to the dissemination of information and continuous disclosure issues. In accordance with this policy, all information provided to the ASX is made available on the Company’s website (www.blackcatsyndicate.com.au).

8. SHARE TRADING POLICY

The Company has adopted a Share Trading Policy to maintain investor confidence in the integrity of Company’s internal controls and procedures, and to provide guidance on avoiding any breach of insider trading laws.

Under the policy, all Key Management Personnel (which includes Directors) are prohibited from trading in the Company’s securities, subject to exceptional circumstances, during the following periods:

- two weeks prior to and 48 hours after the release of the Company’s Annual Financial Report;
- two weeks prior to and 48 hours after the release of the Company’s Half-Year Financial Report; and
- two weeks prior to and 48 hours after the release of the Company’s Quarterly Reports.

A member of Key Management Personnel, who is in possession of price sensitive information which is not generally available to the market, must not deal in the Company’s securities at any time.

In addition, a member of Key Management Personnel who wishes to trade in the Company’s securities must first obtain the consent of the Chairman. In the event that the Chairman wishes to trade in the Company’s securities, the prior consent of the Board must be obtained.

9. DIRECTORS’ DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

Any change in a Director’s direct or indirect interest in Company securities must be disclosed to the Company so that appropriate disclosure can be made by the Company to the ASX in accordance with the Listing Rules.

10. SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS STRATEGY

This strategy details how the Company is committed to keeping Shareholders apprised of the Company’s activities, including by providing regular communications that are balanced and understandable, ensuring information is easily accessible, and facilitating Shareholder participation in the Company’s general meetings.

11. RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

The CEO is primarily responsible for administering this policy, which sets out the way in which various types of risk are to be managed, including by reviews of internal controls, financial reporting, operational activities, investment proposals, environmental and safety risks and continuous improvement.

Material risk matters are reported on and considered at board meetings.

12. ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The Company recognises that it has a fundamental requirement to conduct its proposed activities in an environmentally responsible manner. The Company continually develops its environmental management system to ensure legislative compliance, high levels of employee awareness, stakeholder participation when developing project systems, appropriate performance by contractors and continual improvement in respect of environmental protection issues and hazard minimisation.

Environmental matters are reported on as a standing agenda item at all board meetings.

13. DIVERSITY POLICY

The Board has adopted a diversity policy which provides a framework for the Company to achieve, amongst other things, a diverse and skilled Board and workforce, a workplace culture characterised by inclusive practices and behaviours for the benefit of all staff, and a work environment that values and utilises the contributions of all employees, irrespective of gender, culture, disability, age or religion.

The Company employs new employees and promotes current employees on the basis of performance, ability and attitude. The Board is continually reviewing its practices with a focus on ensuring that the selection process at all levels within the organisation is formal and transparent and that the workplace environment is open, fair and tolerant.

The Company, in keeping with the recommendations of the Corporate Governance Council provides the following information regarding the proportion of gender diversity in the organisation as at 30 June 2019:

	Proportion of Female / Total Number of Persons Employed
Females employed in the Company as a whole	2 / 7
Females employed in the Company in senior executive positions*	0 / 0
Females appointed as a Director of the Company	0 / 4

* There are no individuals considered by the Board to be senior executives outside of the Company's Directors.

The recommendations of the Corporate Governance Council relating to reporting require a Board to set measurable objectives for achieving diversity within the organisation, and to report against them on an annual basis. The Company has implemented measurable objectives as follows:

Measurable Objective	Objective Satisfied	Comment
Adoption and promotion of a Formal Diversity Policy.	Yes	The Company has adopted a Formal Diversity Policy which has been made publicly available via the ASX and the Company's website.
To ensure Company policies are consistent with and aligned with the goals of the Diversity Policy.	Yes	The Company's selection, remuneration and promotion practices are consistent with the goals of the Company's Diversity Policy.
To provide flexible work and salary arrangements to accommodate family commitments, study and self-improvement goals, cultural traditions and other personal choices of current and potential employees.	Yes	The Company will, where considered reasonable and where compatible with the Company's operations, accommodate requests for flexible working arrangements.
To implement clear and transparent policies governing reward and recognition practices.	Yes	The Company rewards and promotes based on merit and responsibility as part of its ongoing review processes.
To provide relevant and challenging professional development and training opportunities for all employees.	Yes	The Company seeks to continually encourage self-improvement in all employees, irrespective of seniority, ability or experience, through external and internal training courses, regular staff meetings and relevant on job mentoring.

The Company has not at this time, implemented measurable objectives regarding the proportion of females to be employed or appointed to Board positions.

The Board will consider the future implementation of gender based diversity measurable objectives when more appropriate to the size and nature of the Company's operations.

14. COMPLIANCE WITH THE ASX RECOMMENDATIONS

The Company's compliance with, and departures from, the ASX Recommendations as at the date of the Report are set out below:

ASX RECOMMENDATION	COMPANY'S COMMENT
1. Lay Solid Foundations for Management and Oversight
1.1. A listed entity should disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The respective roles and responsibilities of its Board and management; and (b) Those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. 	The Company has adopted a Board Charter that sets out the specific roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chairman and management and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. The Board Charter sets out the specific responsibilities of the Board, requirements as to the Board's composition, the roles and responsibilities of the Chairman and Company Secretary, the establishment, operation and management of Board Committees, Directors' access to Company records and information, details of the Board's relationship with management, details of the Board's performance review and details of the Board's disclosure policy. A copy of the Company's Board Charter, which is part of the Company's Corporate Governance Plan, is available on the Company's website.

In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Board carries out the duties that would ordinarily be carried out by the Nomination Committee under the Nomination Committee Charter, including the following processes to address succession issues and to ensure the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, experience, independence and knowledge of the Company to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively: (i) devoting time at least annually to discuss Board succession issues and updating the Company's Board skills matrix; and (ii) all Board members being involved in the Company's nomination process, to the maximum extent permitted under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules.
2.2. A listed entity should have and disclose a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Under the Nomination Committee Charter (in the Company's Corporate Governance Plan), the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is required to prepare a Board skill matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has (or is looking to achieve) and to review this at least annually against the Company's Board skills matrix to ensure the appropriate mix of skills and expertise is present to facilitate successful strategic direction. Given the current size and stage of development of the Company the Board has not yet established a formal Board skills matrix. Gaps in the collective skills of the Board are regularly reviewed by the Board as a whole, with the Board proposing candidates for directorships having regard to the desired skills and experience required by the Company as well as the proposed candidates' diversity of background. The Board Charter requires the disclosure of each Board member's qualifications and expertise. Full details as to each Director and senior executive's relevant skills and experience are available in the Company's Annual Report.
2.3. A listed entity should disclose:	The Board considers two of its Non-Executive Directors, Mr Les Davis and Mr Alex Hewlett to be independent Directors.

ASX RECOMMENDATION	COMPANY'S COMMENT
(a) The names of the Directors considered by the Board to be independent Directors; (b) If a Director has an interest, position, association or relationship that may cause doubts about the independence of a Director, but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the Director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the Board is of that opinion; and (c) The length of service of each Director.	The Board does not consider that Mr Davis or Mr Hewlett are party to any interests, positions, associations or relationships that would compromise their status as independent Directors. The current Directors of the Company commenced office on the following dates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Mr Paul Chapman – 4 August 2017; – Mr Gareth Solly – 1 January 2018; – Mr Alex Hewlett – 4 August 2017; and – Mr Les Davis – 4 August 2017.
2.4. A majority of the Board of a listed entity should be independent Directors.	The Company advises that two of its four directors are considered to be independent hence a majority of the Board is not comprised of independent Directors, and as such does not comply with Recommendation 2.4. Non-Executive Chairman, Mr Paul Chapman (via associated entities) is a substantial shareholder and as such is not considered as independent pursuant to the recommendations of the ASX Corporate Governance Council. The Board considers that despite his substantial shareholding, that Mr Chapman discharges his duties as a Non-Executive Director in an impartial manner, consistent with that of an independent Director.
2.5. The Chair of the Board of a listed entity should be an independent Director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Chairman of the Company, Mr Paul Chapman, is not considered to be independent due to his substantial shareholding, and as such the Company does not comply with Recommendation 2.5. Refer to Recommendation 2.4 above for further information. The position of Chairman and CEO are held by separate Directors.
2.6. A listed entity should have a program for inducting new Directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for Directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as Directors effectively.	In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is responsible for the approval and review of induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for Directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities. The Company Secretary is responsible for facilitating inductions and professional development.
3. Act Ethically and Responsibly
3.1. A listed entity should: (a) Have a code of conduct for its Directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) Disclose that code or a summary of it.	The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct that applies to all Directors, executives and employees. A copy of the code is available on the Company's website.

4. Safeguard Integrity in Corporate Reporting
4.1. The Board of a listed entity should: (a) Have an audit committee which: (i) Has at least three members, all of whom are Non-Executive Directors and a majority of whom are independent Directors; and (ii) Is chaired by an independent Director, who is not the chair of the Board; and disclose; (iii) The charter of the committee; (iv) The relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (v) As at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) If it does not have an Audit Committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	(a) The Company's Corporate Governance Plan contains an Audit and Risk Committee Charter that provides for the creation of an audit and risk committee (if it is considered it will benefit the Company), with at least three members, all of whom must be independent Directors, and which must be chaired by an independent Director who is not the Chairman. (b) The Company does not have an audit and risk committee as the Board considers the Company will not currently benefit from its establishment. In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Board carries out the duties that would ordinarily be carried out by the audit and risk committee under the Audit and Risk Committee Charter including the following processes to independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its financial reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner: (i) The Board devotes time at annual board meetings to fulfilling the roles and responsibilities associated with maintaining the Company's internal audit function and arrangements with external auditors; and (ii) All members of the Board are involved in the Company's audit function to ensure the proper maintenance of the entity and the integrity of all financial reporting.
4.2. The Board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and Chief Financial Officer ("CFO") a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial statements of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The Company's Audit and Risk Committee Charter requires the CEO and CFO (or, if none, the person(s) fulfilling those functions) to provide a sign off on these terms. The Company confirms that it has received CEO and CFO declarations in respect of the 2018/2019 financial period.
4.3. A listed entity that has an Annual General Meeting ("AGM") should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	The Company's Corporate Governance Plan provides that the Board must ensure the Company's external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.

5. Make Timely and Balanced Disclosure
5.1. A listed entity should: (a) Have a written policy for complying with its continual disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) Disclose that policy or a summary of it.	(a) The Board Charter provides details of the Company's disclosure policy. In addition, the Corporate Governance Plan details the Company's disclosure requirements as required by the ASX Listing Rules and other relevant legislation. (b) The Corporate Governance Plan, which incorporates the Board Charter, is available on the Company's website.
6. Respect the Rights of Security Holders
6.1. A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Information about the Company and its governance is available in the Corporate Governance Plan which can be found on the Company's website.
6.2. A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Strategy which aims to promote and facilitate effective two-way communication with investors. The Strategy outlines a range of ways in which information is communicated to Shareholders and is available on the Company's website as part of the Company's Corporate Governance Plan.
6.3. A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Shareholders are encouraged to participate at all general meetings and AGMs of the Company. Upon the despatch of any Notice of Meeting to Shareholders, the Company Secretary shall send out material stating that all Shareholders are encouraged to participate at the meeting. The Company will endeavour to hold meetings of Shareholders at times and venues which will enable and encourage Shareholders to attend.
6.4. A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	The Shareholder Communication Strategy encourages and provides that security holders can register with the Company to receive email notifications when an announcement is made by the Company to the ASX, including the release of the Annual Report, half yearly reports and quarterly reports. Links are made available to the Company's website on which all information provided to the ASX is immediately posted.
7. Recognise and Manage Risk
7.1. The Board of a listed entity should: (a) Have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which:	(a) The Company's Corporate Governance Plan contains an Audit and Risk Committee Charter that provides for the creation of an Audit and Risk Committee (if it is considered it will benefit the Company), with at least three members, all of whom must be independent Directors, and which

¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.
